

ST. STEPHEN SCROLL

St. Stephen Lutheran Church is a community of believers, saved by the grace of God, who are called to:

- share his love through words and actions;
- welcome others into the family of Christ.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ –

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and from our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Even though the calendar tells me it is still summer, it is starting to look and sound much more like fall these days. Telltale signs are popping up all around us. The sun is setting a bit earlier these days, and just this morning there was a slight nip in the air. Our children and their teachers have returned to school. There are school buses on the roads, and college students are getting settled into their dorms.

As summer draws to a close, it is time to begin gearing up for all sorts of awesome activities at Saint Stephen.

On Sunday, September 11th we will kick-off our new year of Sunday school with our annual Rally Day celebration. This year everyone is invited to help us celebrate Rally Day with an all-church potluck picnic following our morning worship service. After we enjoy a delicious picnic lunch, everyone will have the opportunity to meet their new Sunday school teachers and classmates. We will also have fun outside games like croquet, corn hole, and lawn bowling. There are sign-up sheets on the table in the narthex if you plan on joining us for yummy food, wonderful conversation, and fantastic fellowship.

On Sunday, September 18th at 9:00 am, we will officially begin our 2016-2017 Sunday school year with classes for everyone from 4 to 104. Our Sunday school teachers have a wonderful year of learning, fellowship, and fun planned. You won't want to miss a moment of it. Jack and I have the coffee made and the doors unlocked by 8:30 am most Sunday mornings so feel free to come early for a cup of coffee and conversation in the church kitchen. The adult class will be studying the Lord's Prayer this year.

As I look at our fall church calendar, I see an abundance of opportunities for fellowship, spiritual growth, and service. I encourage each of you to try participating in something new this year or restart something you haven't done in while. If you haven't been to Sunday school in a while, join us. If you haven't visited with the families at the Ronald McDonald House, try a visit. If you haven't helped with worship leadership in a while, carry the wine or the bread to the altar during the offering. If you haven't hung out with the kids in a while, try hosting a youth group event. If you haven't participated in our coffee hours, join us. The treats are always delicious and the company lovely. If you haven't spent time with the Golden Sneakers, join them for one of their upcoming adventures. If you haven't sung in the choir, give it a whirl. You don't even have to be able to read music. If you haven't ever joined us for the annual 5K Hunger Walk and Run then please consider joining us on Sunday, September 25th.

There are many exciting things happening in our Christian community. I look forward to seeing you there.

In Christ –

Sunday School Rally Day & Potluck

Sunday School Rally Day is on Sunday, September 11th this year. Traditionally, we have had a breakfast to welcome all of the Sunday school teachers. If you plan to attend, there is a sign up sheet in the narthex.

The first day of Sunday school is on September 18th, and it starts at 9:00 am. Ages 4 through adult are welcome. Bring your family and friends!

Prayer Shawl Group Resumes

After a long summer vacation, the prayer shawl group will resume their meetings on the first Tuesday of each month. Bring your lunch, and we will eat together at 12:30pm and meet at 1:00pm. This month's meeting is on September 6th. We meet at the church in Classroom A/B. All are welcome! If you have not been a part of the group before, we knit, crochet, stitch, and converse while we enjoy each other's company. Our items are given at baptisms and to others in the community. Join us!

3rd Qtr Social Ministry Collection

At the worship services on Sundays, September 11th and 18th, we will take our 3rd quarter social ministry collection. Half of the money collected will go to the Fern Creek Highview United Ministries, and half will be used for other social ministry purposes at St. Stephen. Thank you for your donations in advance.

Council Meeting Date Change

The Saint Stephen Congregation Council meeting is usually scheduled for the second Sunday of the month. However, in September, the meeting will occur on September 18th instead of the 11th as a result of the scheduled Rally Day picnic/potluck. The start time will remain around 11:30 am.

Blessing For Your Daily Tools

On Sunday, September 18th, we will ask God to bless the work we do in his world. You are invited to bring some of the tools of your trade to be blessed. When you come to church on the 18th please place your items up near the altar.

Students – bring your backpacks, homework folders, agendas, or your class schedules.

Teachers – bring your grade books, lesson plans, or a list of your students.

You could bring your favorite coffee cup, laptop, calendar, or cell phone. (Just remember to turn off all electronic devices that might ring during worship!)

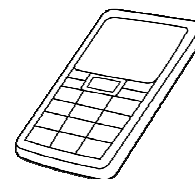

Retirees – bring something that represents your retirement.

Volunteers – bring your aprons, hammers, comfortable shoes, car keys, or whatever you use as a part of your volunteering.

Children (and grown-ups too) might want to bring a favorite toy or two.

If you have a favorite hobby, bring something that represents your hobby.

Whatever your calling is, please bring an item or two with you to be blessed on Sunday, September 18th.

Golden Sneakers Potluck & Planning Meeting

The Golden Sneakers have been taking a summer break, but now it is time to plan for the coming year. On Wednesday, September 21st at 11:30am we are having a potluck while planning activities for the coming year. Bring an entrée, salad, or dessert to share. Don't forget to bring your ideas for activities or restaurants, or if you can't be at the meeting, please mail your ideas to the church! All are welcome! There is a sign up sheet in the narthex. Please indicate what you plan to bring. If you have not previously spent time with this group, most participants are retired, but anyone available during the weekdays is welcome. Call Ellen or Chuck Ullom, 231-4327, if you have questions.

Acolyte Training

All 4th-6th grade students who would like to join the ranks of acolytes at Saint Stephen are invited to attend an acolyte training session during Sunday school on Sunday, October 9th. This training session will be conducted by Kenna Markley. Please let Pastor Kerri know if you are interested. As a reminder, all confirmation students are required to acolyte at least until they are confirmed. If you are a confirmation student and you have not been an acolyte before, you are required to attend. Also, you are welcome to attend if you are already an acolyte but would like a refresher class.

Give Local Louisville

The givelocalloouisville.org website describes Give Local Louisville as "a 24-hour online giving day created to inspire people to give generously to the nonprofits that make our community a better, more vital place to live". Fern Creek Highview United Ministries (FCHUM) is participating in this day of giving this year, which will take place on September 15th, 2016, from 12 am to 11:59 pm. Also from the website, "Give Local Louisville is hosted by the Community Foundation of Louisville (<http://www.cflouisville.org>), the largest charitable foundation in Kentucky with over $430 million in assets and more than 1,350 different funds, each with a charitable purpose defined by the donor". On September 15th, you will be able to go to the givelocalloouisville.org website and search on "Fern Creek Highview United Ministries" to give to FCHUM using your credit card for a minimum donation of $10. Throughout the day, there will be giving incentives and random prizes. Tell all of your friends, and encourage others to participate!

October 15 is Oktoberfest!

It's Oktoberfest time! With the beginning of the autumn season, it seems only fitting we should bring out our best German attire and put on our dancing shoes to celebrate Oktoberfest! You are invited to join us for a traditional Bavarian celebration on October 15th. The cost to attend is $10.00 per person through Sunday, October 9th and $12 at the door to help defray the cost of our festivities. Cost of admission will include traditional Oktoberfest food (including bratwurst, German potato salad, sauerkraut, and more.) Additional food items will be available for purchase in the event you want more!

We are so excited to tell you Hank and company will be providing wonderful music again. If you missed it last year, now is your chance to see what all the excitement is about! (And in case you are wondering, Beer Barrel Polka is definitely traditional Oktoberfest music!)

Put on your most festive attire (lederhosen welcome!), invite your family and friends, and join in the fun for a great time! There will be dancing, laughter, great food, and best of all, incredible music. Doors will open at 7:00 pm for socializing, and food will be served at 7:30 pm. Feel free to bring your own libation and share if you wish! Mark your calendar now!

Come celebrate Oktoberfest with good food and friends!

Saturday, October 15 – 7:00 – 9:30 pm

Head for the Bier Garten and don't forget your lederhosen!

Coffee Hour Volunteers Needed

Starting on Sunday, September 18th, coffee hours after the 10:00 am worship services are back! Everyone is welcome to enjoy coffee hour after worship, but we need volunteers to provide the treats. So far, we have only one family signed up for the fall. If you have a favorite recipe to share or want to try one out on the rest of us, please consider signing up for one of the other Sundays this fall. The sign-up sheet is in the narthex. Thank you in advance for helping us to continue this fellowship opportunity.

We Are Now Collecting Operation Christmas Child Boxes!

There is now a collection table in the narthex for Operation Christmas Child boxes. On this table, you can find brochures with box labels, a completed example shoebox, and a list of suggested items to include and those that you should avoid. The Final Collection Sunday for Operation Christmas Child shoeboxes at St. Stephen is November 20th, so there is plenty of time to get your shoebox(es) together. These shoeboxes are sent to one of the eight distribution centers around the USA and then shipped to children in war zones, disaster areas, and areas of extreme poverty around the world. In 2015, over 11 million OCC shoeboxes were sent to children in 109 countries. Let's help them send even more!

We Celebrate a Birth

We welcome Oliver Thomas Neukam, born on August 8th, 2016 about 3:15am. He was 6.6lbs and 19 inches. He and his parents, Chris and Ashley Neukam are doing fine. Oliver is the grandson, of St. Stephen members, Tom and Jan Neukam.

Send A Note!

Saint Stephen's shut-in members would love to receive a friendly note this fall. Please consider taking a few moments to send one. Our shut-ins are Liz Chapman, Nancy Davidson, Lucile Duke, Andrea Eshenaur, Florence Loy, Marie Pfau, Norma Steiner, Tom & Maxine Swasko, Catherine Thonen, and Rueben Zander. Contact information for all can be found in the latest St. Stephen directory. Please note that Catherine Thonen has a new apartment number in this year's directory.

More School Supply Thanks

As reported in the August newsletter, Saint Stephen collected many school supplies for the Fern Creek Highview United Ministries, (FCHUM), to distribute to local needy children. With collections from all of their member churches, FCHUM was able to help 317 children. Extra supplies were also donated to surrounding schools for the program. With these extra supplies added to the donations from churches, approximately 800 children were helped. Thank you again for your generosity!

We Extend Our Condolences

We extend our condolences to the family and friends of Saint Stephen member Judy Easley who passed away on July 12th, 2016. Pastor Kerri officiated her funeral at Fern Creek Funeral Home on Friday, July 15th, followed by a reception at St. Stephen.

We Celebrate a Wedding

On Saturday, August 20th, Pastor Kerri officiated the wedding of Kristopher Hobbs and Malissia Milburn. Malissia is the daughter of Dawn and David Milburn and the granddaughter of Diane and Jeff Brockman. We wish them well in their new life together.

ELCA presiding bishop reflects on work of the church and looks to future priorities

8/12/2016 10:50:00 PM

NEW ORLEANS – In her report to the 2016 Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) Churchwide Assembly, ELCA Presiding Bishop Elizabeth A. Eaton reflected on the ELCA's work over the past three years and lifted up future priorities for the church.

Eaton said much of her focus the past three years has been on the "how and why we do this work," reminding the assembly of her four emphases for this church: We are church. We are Lutheran. We are church together. We are church for the sake of the world.

"I think it's important when we organize our work together that we understand that we are church first," Eaton said. "And we need to be clear that our lives are formed by word and sacrament, that we gather as the beloved children of God around the means of grace, that our lives are in Christ."

Emphasizing the Lutheran identity and the distinctive Lutheran voice, Eaton said she hoped the church is beginning to understand that "God is calling us to be a diverse, inclusive, multicultural church."

"What does that look like? What does Lutheran look like?" asked Eaton.

"We have to be very, very careful that we don't define ourselves by culture or by cuisine. There are more Lutherans of color throughout the world and throughout the Lutheran federation than there are European descent Lutherans," said Eaton.

In an effort to focus on theology as that which defines and unifies all Lutherans, Eaton told the assembly she is calling this church to read the small catechism together from now until October 2017.

Focusing on being church together, Eaton said it is important members understand that church goes beyond the four walls of their congregations to include synods and the whole of the ELCA.

"But it's not just the ELCA. We are part of The Lutheran World Federation where we are church together, with churches from all across the world. And we're not just Lutheran," said Eaton referring to the ELCA's six full communion partners.

"We just can't somehow ignore that we live in an interreligious culture right now and that we need to work together, particularly at this time in this country when there's so much fear of the other, particularly of people of other religious traditions," she said.

Eaton lifted up the AMMPARO strategy as "a wonderful example of what we can do better together than we can do apart."

AMMPARO – the ELCA's strategy to Accompany Migrant Minors with Protection, Advocacy, Representation and Opportunities – was passed by this assembly Aug. 10.

As a church for the sake of the world, Eaton said, "Some of the most important words that are spoken in a liturgy are: Go in peace, serve the Lord. So we're sent out each worship time to be engaged in the world, understanding that we're nurtured by the sacraments and the word but that we are called to serve this world and not to see people as problems to be solved."

In her report, Eaton also reflected on the upcoming 15th anniversary of the terror attacks on Sept. 11, 2001, sharing the story of an ELCA chaplain in New York who anointed with oil the sign of the cross on firefighters as they entered the World Trade Center.

"In baptism, we have all been marked with the cross of Christ and are all called not to run away but to run to those dark and deadly places, bringing the light and life of Christ," she said.

In addressing the work ahead for this church, Eaton emphasized the importance of working together across the church on issues such as immigration reform and racial injustice.

"We are working with our partners, Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Services, to settle immigrants, especially the Syrian immigrants as they come over here and ... welcome them so they become a part of our fabric of our country ... but we have to keep our focus. These are children of God. They're human beings," she said.

Speaking to the issue of white privilege, Eaton told the assembly, "We didn't create it. We inherited it. But now that we know that it exists, and our eyes are open, we are complicit if we don't do something to change laws and attitudes so that there is a level playing field in this country and so there is liberty and justice for all."

"But we can't do it alone or in isolation," she added. "We deeply need all of our brothers and sisters of color, for us to understand what life is like in this country, and then we need to commit ourselves to do something about it. So please, would you go back to your congregations – and this is a tough one – and right now if this is being live streamed and you can quote this and tweet this out: Pastors, when you start to get pushback from your congregations, just blame it on me."

"But we can't do everything all the time everywhere," said Eaton, emphasizing "Called Forward Together in Christ," an initiative that asks members to join a conversation about the future priorities of the ELCA. Eaton urged those at the assembly to have conversations around this initiative in their congregations.

In closing Eaton told the assembly, "We have work to do. God will give us energy and the courage and the will to do it. Let's go, church."

The assembly – the highest legislative authority of the ELCA – is meeting at the Ernest N. Morial Convention Center in New Orleans. Meeting under the theme "Freed and Renewed in Christ: 500 Years of God's Grace in Action," the assembly's business will include preparations for observing the 500th anniversary of the Reformation in 2017.
